Federico Luger, Colors, 2015, oil painting on canvas, 50 x 70 cm

Opere Scelte Gallery has the pleasure of inviting you, on Wednesday 2 November 2016 at 6.30 pm, in via Matteo Pescatore 11/D to the opening of the first Italian solo exhibition by Federico Luger, Recent Works, curated by Emanuela Romano.

Luger lived in Caracas, Venezuela, up to the age of 21. He studied painting at the Art School “Armando Reverón” and with Adriana Cifuentes. He also studied social communication, graphic design, photography and international commerce. For years he lived in various European cities before settle down in Milano where he opened the “Federico Luger Gallery”.

During the years the artistic research of Federico Luger focused increasingly on the art system and its function: in which contest the artwork becomes an art object? According to Luger the project of the gallery itself was an artistic gesture, a process through which finding an answer to the many questions around the art phenomenon.

Particularly interested in specific aspects of the contemporary life – sharing economy, information flux, decentralization of production, the coexistence of different cultures, the water down of the ego – in his painting arise a reflection on the end of the monochrome through its more essential formal elements: the colour and the matter.

In the works exhibited, produced during the last year, it emerge his interpretation of the artistic intervention as an element catalyst of change.

Ironic and desecrating, Federico Luger include, however, a poetic aspect in his images that he realize with various medium and techniques functional to the contextualisation of the artwork.

The exhibition will be set up until Saturday 10 December 2016.
